"WHITE SLAVERS" ARE ARRAIGNED

PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY ENTERED IN UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

SALT LAKE, May 5.—Six "white" slave" traffickers, under indictment by the federal grand jury, were arraigned yesterday before Judge John A. Marshall of the United States district court. May Brown and Herbert Gould, who are charged with having taken Cora Frohm to Pocatello for immoral purposes, pleaded not guilty.

Attorney W. E. Rydahl will represent the Brown woman and Attorney J. L. Lewisohn will defend Gould. Ray Thompson, who was indicted jointly with them, was represented by Attorney J. E. Darmer, and took until Saturday to plead.

Eugene Y. Hughes, who is charged with having brought May Baker from Kansas City to Salt Lake for immoral purposes entered a plea of not guilty. Attorney George H. Davis was appointed to defend him. William Siegel, charged with having induced Matilda Anderson to leave Denver and come to Salt Lake for immoral purposes, entered a plea of not guilty. Ross Morrison, who was indicted by the grand jury for taking Irene Hobbs to Baker City, Oregon, entered a plea of not guilty. He will be represented by Attorney S. A. King.

E. A. Nye, who is charged with taking the bankruptcy law and then disposing of his property to defraud his creditors, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Attorney A. A. Duncan, charged with having robbed the United States mail at Price, and Richard L. Henry, charged with having robbed the postoffice at Springville, were both arraigned on indictments and pleaded not guilty. Judge Marshall appointed Robert P. Porter to defend Dalton and W. H. Leary to defend Henry.

TOM JOHNSON LEFT NO WILL.

NEW YORK, May 5.—That the late Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland left no will is established by an application of his widow before the surrogate here for appointment as administrator of the estate in this city. In her petition, Mrs. Johnson says she has concluded that her husband left no will because she has made a careful search and failed to find one. She estimates that the value of the estate in New York City amounts to $175,000. The estate is all personal.

FORGETS SHE OWNS MONEY MAKING HOUSE

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—Mrs. Hetty Green of New York has, according to the tenants of a four-story building on a downtown St. Louis corner, forgotten that she owns the building. The tenants have not paid rent for six months because no collector called. The rental of the building is $200 a month.

CONSCIENCE-STRICKEN YOUNG PROBATIONER

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 5.—Edward F. Kelly, chief probationary officer of the city court, has a conscience-stricken young probationer who confesses he stole a $500 motorcycle in Syracuse a year ago and wants to pay for it by weekly installments.

The young man was recently convicted of an assault and placed on probation. He has gone to work and bids fair to succeed, having already been promoted in his employment. The matter will be taken up with the Syracuse police.

THREE CORNERED FIGHT IN THE U. S. SENATE

WASHINGTON, May 5.—A three-cornered fight over the election of a president pro tempore of the senate to succeed Senator Frye is in prospect. Senator Gallinger is the general choice of the regular republicans but is unsatisfactory to many progressives who are considering one of their own men, probably Senator Clapp, to show they hold the balance of power.

It is said he would get at least ten votes, sufficient to prevent Gallinger's election. Senator Bacon probably will receive the democratic vote.

POLITICAL NOTES GATHERED FROM MANY SECTIONS

The lieutenant governor of Rhode Island receives a salary of $500 a year, which it is now proposed to increase to $1500.

It is rumored that Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago will be the Hearst candidate for the democratic presidential nomination next year.

Minnesota has adopted the Oregon plan providing for the nomination of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

William Allen White, the Emporia editor, suggests Governor Stubbs of Kansas as the best man to succeed Charles Curtis in the United States senate.

The National Negro Democratic league will not meet in Indianapolis on May 17 to formulate plans for participation in the presidential campaign of 1912.

Governor Glasscock has called a special session of the West Virginia legislature to enact a state-wide primary law which shall include provisions for the popular nomination of United States senators.

Three candidates have so far announced for the democratic gubernatorial nomination in Florida. They are Attorney General Park Trammell, State Railroad Commissioner R. Hudson Burr, and Cromwell Gibbons, a prominent lawyer of Jacksonville.

Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, who is expected to be a leading candidate for the democratic presidential nomination next year, is planning an extensive tour of the west in the early summer. He will speak in Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, and will also stop off at Lincoln, Neb., to be the guest of William Jennings Bryan.
